

Poor little fellow! He coughs so hard he cannot sleep. That makes him weak and sickly all the next day. His brother thinks this coughing is terrible. So do we, for we know that just a few doses of will stop the cough. For sixty years it has been the standard remedy with men, women, and children for colds, coughs, and all throat and lung diseases. It contains no narcotic or poison of any kind. Be sure that you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Accept no cheap and worthless substitute.

"No Water!"

Every time the pressure is low, you hear the cry from upstairs, "There's no water!" There's going to be a scarcity of water this year, but it need not trouble you. The "Pa, what is the meaning of inconsistency?" asked Freddy.

"Inconsistency, my son," explained Pa, "means a man who grows all day and then goes home and kicks the dog for barking at night."—Harper's Weekly.

SPORTS

At two o'clock this afternoon the yacht Hawaii, Captain Harris, will leave for San Pedro. Everything is in readiness for the start, the necessary finishing touches having been completed yesterday. All the water and stores necessary for the trip were taken on board, and the yacht was declared ready for sea.

Berger and his band will be on hand to play patriotic airs and one of the largest waterfront crowds of the year is expected to be on hand to wish the captain and crew goodspeed. The crew as well as the captain feel confident that the Hawaii will be the lucky one in the race and their feeling is the wish of every one in the Territory. The race will start promptly at high noon on July 4, the starting gun being fired by the President in the White House. So far there are three yachts entered besides the Hawaii, and it is quite possible that one or two more will enter during the month.

A meeting of the Oahu Polo club will be held some day this week.

It is almost certain that Maui, Kauai and Oahu will be represented in the polo tournament that will be held at Kapiolani Park during the stay of the fleet.

A large crowd is expected at the Newspaper League games next Sunday, as the games put up last Sunday were worthy of a much larger crowd than the one present. One of the players in the big league who was present at both games stated that the baseball played was every bit as good as the kind played in the big league the day before.

The Advertisers and the Mercantile line up in the first game, while the Sons of Paradise and the Stars play the second.

The Kamaunui A. C. have sold out their Kalamannole league interests to Robert Akeo and Cornelius Ali.

Hawaiian Gun Club shoot tomorrow afternoon at five o'clock at the Kakaiko traps.

Baseball today at Makiki field between teams in the Junior Inter-scholastic league.

The annual meeting of the Diamond Head A. C. will be held at 7:30 this evening at Odd Fellows hall.

Charles Albright, who was to have gone on the Hawaii as press representative, will be unable to leave as he can find no one to take his place on his paper. Secretary McInerney stated this morning that if Albright did not go there would be no representative of the press on board, as the committee did not have time to look for another man at this late hour.

The outcome of the baseball games next Saturday in the big league at the present time looks very much as if the Diamond Heads would win from the Puns, and the Saints will probably nose out ahead of the Kams, although a good many think that the Alumni boys from North King street will do the trick. All the teams are going in the games next Saturday to win and good baseball is looked for. In last Saturday's games the Puns did not show their usual form, and it is possible that practice this week will make a difference, but they will certainly have to play the game if they want to win from the leaders.

The Kams showed on Saturday that they had not forgotten how to play the game, and with Barney Joy out of the game for the Saints they ought to have some chance.

Bill Hampton will be in the box for his team as Malm did not make good. Marcellino will probably be at first, and the rest of the team the same as in last week's game. Bill Chillingworth will probably do the twirling for the Heads, while Renter and Bushnell will be in their regular places. A big crowd is expected to be on hand and fast ball will be the order of events.

Just as soon as word comes from the coast relative to football teams in the fleet, the local knights of the gridiron will start in practicing. A good many old players are anxious to get in the game again and it will be possible to get a very strong team together.

Charley George, an old time Brown University player, is the chairman of the football committee, and any player who is anxious to don the molesters is requested to send in his name to him.

Eben Low, who will give a Wild West show at Kapiolani Park during the stay of the fleet, is busy getting matters in shape for the many events that will be given and he promises to have the greatest collection of riders and cowboys that have ever been in Honolulu, on the opening day of the show. The work on the benches and fence will start about the middle of the month and will be finished in plenty of time for the opening day.

SPEED AND SPARKS

Philadelphia has a live wire in Louis J. Bergdoll, the amateur driver of the Benz car. Mr. Bergdoll has the agency for the Benz car and for a great many other cars and is adding to his line daily. He has entered the business to remain for some time as is attested by his buildings, constructed for the automobile business and quite numerous on automobile row, where he owns almost one million dollars worth of property. The standing of the young multi-millionaire in the automobile trade of Philadelphia is exceptional, for he has already the agencies for many of the most prominent cars and is adding to his line almost daily. His participation in speed contests is relaxation from the cares of business and is due to his fondness for fast driving. A love for the sport is inherent with him and he is anxious to see it thrive. For this reason he enters contest after contest and is an enthusiastic supporter of the sport.

John H. Tyson, owner of the big Isotta racer and employer of Louis Strang, was arrested at Stamford, Conn., his home town, last week for disturbing the peace, and his chauffeur, Arthur Peterson, was also taken along on the charge of interfering with Detective Foley, who made the arrest. Mr. Tyson's big Briarcliff racer was in a garage at Stamford and Mr. Tyson, with several friends, came down to Stamford from New York for a little run in the car. It was a pretty fast run and when it was brought to a standstill in front of the Hotel Carlton it snorted so loudly horses were frightened.

Complaint was made to the police, and Detective Foley went over to investigate. There was some question as to who drove the car, and Chief of Police Brennan directed that Tyson and all his friends be brought in. Two got away in the excitement. They were released later.

A recent incident which happened in the pathfinding trip in Florida recalled vividly an incident which happened on the pathfinding trip of the Great Arrow when laying out the route of the A. A. tour last year. It will be recalled that the route from Canton to Pittsburg was laid out under force of circumstances through a district so hilly that no other car ever attempted it. The car was of course a curiosity to the farmers, many of whom had never seen an automobile. At one place which was reached in the dark with all the lights going and the engine wide open, two Irishmen standing in the roadside took a look and ran. One said to the other "Sure, Mike, they're moving hell and there's two loads gone by already." The six-cylinder Pierce with its light and its noise might have remained anyone not yet posted of the time coming.

BUNTS

Louis in right for the Jewels robbed Aylett of a pretty hit in the third, spoiling the Saints' chance to score.

J. Walter Doyle, lately returned from a business trip, was seen in company with Cousin Jack on the Ewa bleachers. They are without car, as a team of joshers, and between the two they made the fun last during the entire afternoon.

Ginger Malm, the Puna new slasher, proved a ginger snap for the Kams till Hampton was called on to relieve him in the seventh.

Leslie's reappearance was all that was predicted. He was there with the speed and, although showing poor judgment at times due no doubt to his long retirement from the game, managed to deliver the goods that brought victory in return to his team.

Alfred Williams played a star game at short, having many hard chances but handling them all with care.

Barney Joy's retirement in the seventh for talking back to the umpire proved the undoing of his team. The fans of Honolulu take a lot of pride in Barney's playing and it is to be regretted that he so far forgets himself at times as to cause Umpire Bower to call him down. Amateur baseball is what we want in Hawaii and it is the intention of the League officials to get it, even at the cost of some of its best players. It is to be hoped that Barney will see his mistake and come through, as his non-appearance during future games of this season will be sadly missed by many of the fans.

Soares played his usual good game on the receiving end of Bushnell's delivery, making a striking play in a long foul fly in the seventh.

Vanatta was a game in himself on second, doing pretty work and covering a great deal of ground. His handling of Hooge's speedy liner with three men on bases in the sixth was one of the star plays of the day.

CRUDE ATTACKS ON CHURCHMEN

Candidates For Bishoprics At Methodist Conference Slandered.

SUFFER IN THE BALLOTING.
Two More of High Officers Are Expected To Be Filled Today.

BALTIMORE, (Md.), May 24.—The Methodist Episcopal general conference now current will doubtless be long remembered for the number and peculiar character of the attacks that have been made upon candidates for the bishoprics to be filled. Thus far four men have suffered more or less by reason of the circulation among the delegates of stories, some of them very vague and not all of them told with their proper and just explanations.

The most pronounced sufferer has been Rev. Dr. Charles L. Goodell of Cavalry Church, New York. A story that falsely represented Dr. William A. Quayle as having in his youth acted the part of a jilt apparently hurt him for a time, but the reaction brought by the statement of the truth has been markedly to his advantage. A similar result is probable in the case of Rev. Dr. Joseph Hingley, secretary of the conference, against whom a resident of the doctor's home city, Minneapolis, attempted to influence delegates, and succeeded for a time, by means of telegrams declaring that Minneapolis was astonished at the prominence given Dr. Hingley in the balloting. A fourth candidate, who has been the victim of a story partly told, which if told in full could not possibly have influenced the vote of any sane man against him, is Rev. Dr. George F. Eckman, pastor of St. Paul's Church, New York.

It is not unlikely that the tenth ballot, which will be counted early tomorrow morning and announced to the conference upon its reassembling, will result in the election of two more Bishops, leaving four to be chosen. There are some indications, and more hopes, that the selection of men for elevation to the episcopacy will thereafter go on more rapidly, though none will venture a prediction as to when this portion of the work of the conference will be completed.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Rev. Dr. Charles L. Goodell, pastor of Cavalry Methodist Episcopal Church, whose candidacy for Bishop at the Baltimore Methodist General Conference was affected when reports were spread that he had figured in divorce proceedings nearly a quarter of a century ago, was the recipient of remarkable demonstrations of affection and esteem by the members of his congregation today. Over 1000 members of his congregation, after the morning service, filed one by one down by the communion rail to shake the hand of their pastor and assure him that he held their entire confidence. At the conclusion of the evening service the scene of the morning was repeated.

"I do not seek an election in the episcopacy," said Dr. Goodell. "I made no effort for it. The first intimation I had that my name was being put forward in candidacy was when I was informed by the seventeen members of the California delegation that they were with me all the time. I did not and do not seek the office, but I thank you for the expressions of regard which you have given me."

Immediately afterward a committee of seven members of the official board was appointed unanimously, and to them was left the preparation of a statement to be issued on behalf of the official board. In concluding its statement the committee states: "It can not be questioned that the membership of Cavalry Church are a unit in their opinion of the fitness and ability of Dr. Goodell to fill any place within the gift of the church, and that Cavalry Church would be a great loser if the church at large should deem it necessary to take from them a beloved and devoted pastor."

"We are not making this statement as a vindication of Dr. Goodell's integrity of character, for he needs no defense in this respect, but as a protest against the methods of misrepresentation resorted to for the manifest purpose of injuring his reputation in order to advance the interests of others. We deplore the fact that in a Christian body representing the religion of Jesus Christ, there should be illustrated a spirit of willingness to sacrifice the good name of a brother that the cause of others should be advanced."

HIGH LIVING AT PANAMA

WORKMEN ON THE CANAL ACTUALLY HAVE PIE EVERY DAY INCLUDING SUNDAYS.

Those employed in the work on the Panama Canal may live well, according to the last issue of the Canal Record, as the official newspaper of the Zone is called. Pies, cake and fresh strawberries are some of the luxuries which Uncle Sam is now providing for his men. The following clippings tell of this part of the bill of fare:

The cake and pie service, which was begun by the Commissary Department on April 20, has evidently met a quite general demand. There are produced at present about six hundred pies and four hundred pounds of cake per day. There are seven varieties of pie, one for each day in the week, and as many varieties of cake. The daily schedule for the present week is as follows:

Monday, pie, apple; cake, jelly squares.
Tuesday, pie, mince; cake, loaf.
Wednesday, pie, peach; cake, ribbon.
Thursday, pie, plum; cake, pound.
Friday, pie, apricot; cake, wine.
Saturday, pie, green-gage cake, chocolate squares.
Sunday, pie, fig; cake, diamond jelly.
Of the cake supply, pound and loaf are in large form, and all the rest are small. The pies are sold at ten cents each, and the cakes at ten cents per pound. Special orders for the delivery of cake of any particular kind desired will receive prompt attention. The pie and cakes are baked daily, and are furnished fresh each day to the local commissaries.

The experiments which the Commissary has made during the last few weeks to secure, by way of New Orleans, fresh strawberries have not been successful. The shipments have been nearly, or quite, a total loss. It has been decided not to attempt any further shipments until the Norfolk crop is put on the market, which will be about the 10th of May, the crop being about ten days or a fortnight behind the usual time this year. After the 10th of May, it is the intention of the Commissary to have regular shipments so long as the season lasts.

FRIENDLY DIPLOMACY DISPELS ALL DISTRUST.

Appropriation For Tokyo Exposition Also Wins Praise of the Japanese.

TOKYO, May 22.—The appropriation made by the American congress to provide for the representation of the United States at the Tokyo international exposition, and the signing of the trade mark convention between the two countries have created a favorable impression in Japan. The newspapers editorially say that the straightforward, friendly course of American diplomacy has succeeded in dispelling any feeling of distrust that may have been entertained by Japan. These evidences of mutual consideration are taken here to contradict all irresponsible expressions of unfriendliness between the two countries, which it is believed here have emanated from persons interested in maintaining strained relations.

DRESS-MAKERS

The nervous strain through which dressmakers have to pass at certain seasons of the year seems almost beyond endurance, and frequently brings on nervous prostration, fainting spells, dizziness, sleeplessness and a general breaking down of the feminine system, until life seems altogether miserable.

For all overworked women there is one tried and true remedy.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

restores the feminine system to a strong, healthy, normal condition. Mrs. Ella Griffin, of Park St., Canton, N.Y., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was troubled for three years with female weakness, backache, pains in my side, and headaches. I was most miserable and discouraged, for doctors gave me no relief. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought back my health and made me feel better than ever before."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

STAR FLEET EDITION THAT WILL ATTRACT WORLD ATTENTION

The Hawaiian Star's special fleet edition will be issued simultaneously in San Francisco and Honolulu, on the lines of the plan whereby the London Daily Mail issues simultaneous editions in London and Manchester, and the New York Journal and San Francisco Examiner frequently issue at the same hour papers in many respects identical, though the width of a continent apart from one another.

The existence of a cable line between here and San Francisco makes such an enterprise possible. It will be the first time such a journalistic feat was ever attempted in the Pacific. It will give the Hawaiian islands one of the greatest advertisements they ever had, for the publication will arouse comment all over the United States and Europe.

To Honolulu advertisers this edition offers the best opportunity ever given, without exception. TWENTY THOUSAND officers and men of the fleet will be reading and referring to this paper all the eight or nine days of their trip here.

They will get the paper just when they are looking for information about Hawaii,—when they are leaving San Francisco with Hawaii as their next stopping place. They will look it over every day, for information about Hawaii.

More than three quarters of the officers and men have never been here, and they will be deeply interested in a Honolulu newspaper.

Prominent business men of the Territory in commenting upon the plan above outlined have expressed the opinion that the fleet edition of The Star, issued in this way, will be one of the greatest bits of Promotion work ever done here.
